For the month of December, size matters at Shift Collaborative Studio! SHIFT is pleased to announce another dynamic group exhibition, Little Shift: Small Works. The show includes affordable small-scale works in a variety of media ranging from painting to sculpture, mixed media to photography. Participating SHIFT Studio members are: Garth Amundson, Crystal Anderson, Stephen Chalmers, Michelle Forsyth, Pierre Gour, Kevin Haas, Cara Jaye, Andrew Kaufman, Elise Richman, and Carolyn Zick.

Please join us in celebration of our one-year anniversary at the opening reception December 1st from 5-8 pm. Shift is located in the Tashiro-Kaplan Building #105, 306 S Washington, Seattle 98104 on the corner of 3rd and Washington.

The opening reception on Thursday December 1st will provide the opportunity for the artists to meet the public and discuss their work. Shift is open on Fridays and Saturdays from 12-5 through December 17th.

Shift Collaborative Studio opened last fall in the Tashiro-Kaplan Arts Complex. Shift is an artist run space with the primary goal of supporting emergent, practicing Northwest artists.

In addition to its regular hours, Shift welcomes visitors by appointment. E-mail: shiftgallery@yahoo.com
